

Changing the direction of your baby in the crib helps build strength and prevent early motor delays. Always place baby on his back to sleep.

---

On odd days, face baby this way

On even days, face baby this way

